NOTIFICATION

The Bhutan Medical and Health Council (Council) would like to remind all the registered Medical and Health Professionals that the as per the chapter VII of Medical and Health Council, Act 2002, states that “ The duration of the period for initial registration of an individual shall be five years where after they will be required to re-register for continued practice.” It is illegal to practice your profession with an expired registration if not renew their registration if practising their profession in Bhutan.

The Council has communicated to all Medical and Health professionals to renew their registration through our earlier notifications latest by 31st July 2018.

As there are no response from Medical and Health Professionals who have registered with the Council and as registered medical and health professionals failed to renew their registration the Council have no option but to remove name from the database of the National Medical and Health Register of the Council with immediate effect.
